

Key word Sign (Makaton)

Using sign language to help children communicate

This workshop is for PARENTS and EDUCATORS of children and is an introduction to the benefits of using simple sign language to help children learn to communicate.

Key word sign has been proven to be a very effective strategy for children who have learning disability, are slow to learn to speak as well as children learning two languages. In fact, research has shown that sign language can help ALL children to understand and speak faster than children who don't see sign.

The workshop will cover:

-  What is key word sign
-  Learn and practice the most important signs in everyday routines
-  Practice signing in songs for young children at home and the classroom
