

Let's talk about

SPEECH & LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT

An informative talk about speech language development for children aged 0-6 years old. We will explore typical speech & language development, strategies to promote communication in young children and common myths and beliefs about how children learn language.

If you are a parent or educator who has or works with young children, and have questions or concerns about your child's development, then this talk is for you. You will have the opportunity to learn, discuss and walk away with tips from professionals.
